• What information we collect, use, and why

We collect or use the following information for service updates or marketing purposes:

- Marketing preferences, names, emails, and Date of Birth

• Lawful bases and data protection rights

Under UK data protection law, we must have a “lawful basis” for collecting and using your personal information. There is a list of possible lawful bases in the UK GDPR. You can find out more about lawful bases on the ICO’s website.

Which lawful basis we rely on may affect your data protection rights which are in brief set out below. You can find out more about your data protection rights and the exemptions which may apply on the ICO’s website:

- Your right of access – You have the right to ask us for copies of your personal information. Read more
- Your right to rectification – You can ask us to correct or delete personal information you think is inaccurate or incomplete. Read more
- Your right to erasure – You can ask us to delete your personal information. Read more
- Your right to restriction of processing – You can ask us to limit how we use your personal information. Read more

- Your right to object to processing – You can object to our processing of your data. Read more

- Your right to data portability – You can ask us to transfer the information to another organisation or to you. Read more

- Your right to withdraw consent – When we rely on consent, you can withdraw it at any time. Read more

If you make a request, we must respond to you without undue delay and within one month.

To make a data protection rights request, please contact us using the contact details above.

• Our lawful bases for collecting and using your data

Our lawful bases for collecting or using personal information for service updates or marketing purposes are:

- Consent – we have permission from you after giving all the relevant information. All of your data protection rights may apply, except the right to object. You can withdraw your consent at any time.

• Where we get personal information from

- Directly from you

• How to complain

If you have any concerns about our use of your personal data, contact us using the contact details above.

If you remain unhappy, you can also complain to the ICO.
